DADS AND MOMS PAC ANNOUNCES FAMILY PUBLIC POLICY PRIORITIES FOR 2013

Advocating for family preservation, shared parenting, child support reform and other key family issues during the current legislative session

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, MI – Dads and Moms PAC, a responsible family and fatherhood education and advocacy organization, today released their legislative agenda for 2013. The organization consulted with US and Michigan Legislators, US Department of Health and Human Services, Michigan Judges and Lawyers, Family Service Counselors, Heritage Foundation, National Center for Fathering, Children Need Both Parents, Fathers a Childs Rights, Fathers For Equal Rights, Family Rights Coalition, American Coalition of Fathers and Children, and the Children's Rights Council in preparing the public policy agenda. The proposed agenda will save the state a billion dollars in expenses.

Dads of Michigan PAC announced the focus of their public policy agenda with the follows issues:

- Sharing Parenting
- Parenting Time Guidelines
- Paternity
- Parenting Plans
- Family Education Program
- Child Support

"We will continue to work this year on progressive legislation and reforms that will help families to stay together and provide the best interest of children with the best opportunities available," said James Semerad, Washington DC Representative of Dads and Moms PAC. For more information or interviews, please call 248-850-1407.

Dads and Moms PAC is a responsible family preservation advocacy organization dedicated to keeping both biological parents actively engaged in the lives of their children despite divorce and custody, in most instances. We believe men and women should be viewed equally under the law and our credo is: "fathers are responsible parents too...because the best parent is both parents."

Because the best parent is both parents!!
